ANCIENT GREEK DIARY: A DAY FROM MELISSA'S LIFE

Somewhere in an Ancient Greek household....

gynaecium - girls' part of the house

I am Melissa. This is Homer, my favourite dog. Every day we wake up early.

Nice hair and a hairband are a must. My nanny sees to that.

I help mother in the field. She uses a sickle to cut the wheat. Farming is a hard job.

I write using a stylus and wax tablets. I study Greek myths and poetry.

I eat soup and bread. Greeks like vegetables and fruit, but not meat.

I have to sweep, spin, weave, make clothes....

Girls go out of the house to visit other girls. My friends and I chat and drink spring water out of skyphoi, ceramic cups. We like to go to the courtyard.

By the end of the day if I have done all my chores and lessons I am allowed to play. I have yo-yos, dolls, horses, rattles and more.
